Part II  Claim for Tax Treaty Withholding Exemption

11 Compensation for independent (and certain dependent) personal services:
   a Description of personal services you are providing Private sector employment not associated with any work in connection with a statutory "Trade or Business" defined at IRC 7701 (a) (26) to mean "the performance of the functions of a Public Office." Public Offices are creations of the US Congress. All personal services are performed sans federal nexus as American in private sector.
   b Total compensation you expect to be paid for these services in this calendar or tax year $ NOT APPLICABLE

12 If compensation is exempt from withholding based on a tax treaty benefit, provide:
   a Tax treaty on which you are basing exemption from withholding NOT APPLICABLE
   b Treaty article on which you are basing exemption from withholding c Total compensation listed on line 11b above that is exempt from tax under this treaty $ NOT APPLICABLE
   d Country of residence

Note: Do not complete lines 13a through 13d unless you also received compensation for personal services from the same withholding agent.

13 Noncompensatory scholarship or fellowship income:
   a Amount $ NOT APPLICABLE
   b Tax treaty on which you are basing exemption from withholding NOT APPLICABLE
   c Treaty article on which you are basing exemption from withholding d Total income listed on line 13a above that is exempt from tax under this treaty $ NOT APPLICABLE

14 Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from withholding claimed on line 12 and/or line 13 (see instructions) Personal Services are performed as an employee of or under a contract with a private sector employer. Neither myself nor my employer are engaged in a (statutory) "Trade or Business" within the (statutory) "United States" [the District of Columbia]. The FIT was only levied upon the National Government. No levy of FIT upon Americans due to USSC in the Pollock decision for omission of Rule of Apportionment. IRC 861 (a) (26) states in part...compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States (meaning the District of Columbia only per IRC 7408 (d) [NOTE: This statutory United States does not include the 50 states of the Union] SHALL NOT be deemed as income from sources within the (statutory) United States if..." The 26 USC Section 861 (a) (26) continues with "the compensation for labor or services performed as an employee of or under contract with..." (i) a nonresident alien not engaged in a (statutory) "Trade or Business" in the (statutory) United States. " Thus, a Nonresident Alien is free from any withholding for a FIT.  A Revocation of Election (IRC 6013 (g) (4) (A)) has been recorded with the IRS granting this NRA termination of any IRS FIT claim." The IRC obtuse...defines a NONRESIDENT ALIEN to be one who is neither a U.S. citizen nor resident alien (IRC 7701 (b) (1) (B)). This statute subsection never tells the reader what a Nonresident Alien actually is but only what it is not. The term is a statutory creation of the US Congress to obfuscate the real parties referenced by this oblique expression. The statutory US Citizen is defined at 8 USC Sec 1401 (a) & 3 C Am Jur 2d Section 2689 to be "one born in territory belonging to the Government" (US Territories only).

Part III  Certification

Under penalties of perjury from without the United States [28 USC§1746 (1)], I declare that I have examined the information on this form and to the best of my knowledge and belief it is true, correct, and complete. • The beneficial owner is not a U.S. person.

Furthermore, I authorize this form to be provided to any withholding agent that has control, receipt, or custody of the income of which I am the beneficial owner or any withholding agent that can disburse or make payments of the income of which I am the beneficial owner.

26 U.S. CODE § 861 - INCOME FROM SOURCES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES

The statutory term “United States” is defined at IRC 7408(d) to mean only the District of Columbia and its US Territories.

(d) Citizens and residents outside the United States “If any citizen or resident of the United States does not reside in, and does not have his principal place of business in, any United States judicial district, such citizen or resident shall be treated for purposes of this section as residing in the District of Columbia.”

(a) Gross income from sources within United States
The following items of gross income shall be treated as income from sources within the United States:

(3) Personal services – [Discussion on Nonresident Alien Individuals having no federal income tax liability]
Compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States; except that compensation for labor or services performed in the United States shall not be deemed to be income from sources within the United States if—

(A) the labor or services are performed by a nonresident alien individual temporarily present in the United States for a period or periods not exceeding a total of 90 days during the taxable year,
(B) such compensation does not exceed $3,000 in the aggregate, and

(C) the compensation is for labor or services performed as an employee of or under a contract with—
(i) a nonresident alien, foreign partnership, or foreign corporation, not engaged in trade or business within the United States...

A Nonresident alien is defined statutorily in IRC 7701 (b)(1)(B) “An individual is a nonresident alien if such individual is neither a citizen of the United States nor a resident of the United States.” [This only states what it is not rather than what it is]

26 CFR 1.871-1(a) “Nonresident alien individuals are taxable only on certain income from sources within and without the United States which is effectively connected for the taxable year with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.”

26 CFR 1.871-1(b) (4) Expatriation to avoid tax, “For special rules applicable in determining the tax of a nonresident alien individual who has lost U.S. citizenship with a principal purpose of avoiding certain taxes.”

NOTE:
(A) In the IRC 7701 (b)(1)(B), you see that a nonresident alien individual cannot be either a U.S. citizen nor a resident alien.
(B) In 26 CFR 1.871-1(b) (4) Expatriation to avoid tax, you see that a Nonresident alien individual can lose their U.S. citizenship and lose it by expatriation.
(C) There is only one group of individuals that can have a U.S. citizenship and lose it by expatriation. Those are Americans born in the Constitutional Republic or naturalized there.

In a separate jurisdiction, the District of Columbia, you find the following:

The statutory term “United States” means the District of Columbia. Now substitute that understanding for the statutes.

A statutory U.S. citizen is defined at 8 USC section 1401(a) “a person born in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof;”

A statutory U.S. citizen is defined in the American Journal of Jurisprudence at 3C Am Jur 2d Section 2689. Who is born in United States and subject to United States jurisdiction, “A person is born subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, for purposes of acquiring citizenship at birth, if his or her birth occurs in territory over which the United States is sovereign....”

Those born in the Constitutional Republic are not subject to the jurisdiction of the National Government as they ‘are not born in territory belonging to the statutory United States’ [the National Government]. The Constitutional Republic is a separate and distinct jurisdiction from that of the territory belonging to the statutory United States, the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia is not a state of the Union. Private Sector Employers cannot be presumed as Federal.

A statutory trade or business is defined at IRC 7701(a)(26) “includes [consists of to the exclusion of all other terms] the performance of the functions of a public office.” [All public offices are those created by the US Congress for IRC purposes]
