Indicate whether any of the following circumstances apply to you — continued

If you don't think you have to file a tax return for 2014 Explain why you don't think you are required to file a tax return for 2014.
 Note: The answers to these questions apply to the 2014 tax year only.

- My filing status was:
- Head of Household
 - Married filing jointly
 - Married filing separately
 - Single
 - Qualified widow(er) with dependent child
 - Permanent Termination of Election - Date of Termination: 4/1/2015. IRC authority: IRC 6013 (g)(4)(A) and (g)(6). Not Required to File.
- The following applied to me:
- I was 65 or older
 - I am blind
 - My spouse was 65 or older
 - My spouse is blind
 - I am not a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
 - My work was performed in another country
 - I could be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return

REASON FOR NOT FILING: Not Required to file per the Termination of Election. I have never been a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. A U.S. citizen per 8 USC section 1401(a) and 3C Am Jur 2d Section 2689 'Who is born in United States and subject to United States jurisdiction', states that one must be born in territory belonging to the United States [the District of Columbia - IRC 7408(d) - and US Territories to have the status of being a statutory 'U.S. citizen'. IRS must know and properly abide by their own statutes designed for their territorial jurisdiction.

If you have a refund from a prior year that you applied to your 2014 taxes or made estimated tax payments for 2014 taxes I want to apply the credit to another tax return:
 Note: You must file a return for 2014 to apply the prior year credit.

Tax form number Tax period ending SSN
 Or:
 I want to receive the credit as a refund check.
 Note: You must file a tax return to be eligible for a refund even though you might not be required to file.

The US Congress has granted my option to leave the US Tax System permanently as stated in IRC 6013(g)(4)(A) Termination of Election and it is permanent per IRC 6013 (g)(6). The IRS has no option but to adhere to this statute. Attached is a copy of the Revocation of Election delivered to the DIRECTOR in Chamblee, GA office on December 19th, 2014, and thus was recorded. The IRS cannot compel Americans to associate with the National Government per 13th Amendment. This mistake on your part is resolved by the US Congress.
