

UNITED STATES TAX COURT
WASHINGTON, DC 20217

[REDACTED])
)
Petitioner,)
)
v.)	[REDACTED]
)
COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,)
)
Respondent)
)
)

ORDER OF DISMISSAL FOR LACK OF JURISDICTION

After receipt of a document from petitioner filed May 1, 2013, as an imperfect petition to commence the above-captioned case, the Court, by Order dated May 10, 2013, directed the filing of a proper amended petition and payment of the Court's filing fee. On June 21, 2013, petitioner submitted correspondence filed as a response to the Court's Order. Therein, petitioner states as follows:

Recently, your office sent a request for me to submit to your jurisdiction by: (1) filing an Amended Petition and (2) sending a filing fee on or before June 24, 2013. The USTC action was purposely subsilentio in its designed intent to draw me into your territorial jurisdiction for the express purpose to allow the USTC and by extension, the IRS, to impose the federal income tax that has been levied only upon the National Government per The Legislative Intent of the 16th Amendment, written by former POTUS William H. Tacft on June 16, 1909, and is only applicable with the jurisdiction of the statutory "United States" meaning the District of Columbia.

I exist 'outside the United States' as an Ameican National [non resident alien non US person] with no taxation nexus to the jurisdiction of the US Tax Court, the statutory "United States" [26 USC § 7408(d)].

No amended petition or filing fee has been received.

Accordingly, it appearing that petitioner does not intend to file an amended petition and pay the filing fee as directed in the Court's Order dated May 10, 2013, it is ORDERED that, on the Court's own motion, this case is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

(Signed) John O. Colvin
Chief Judge

ENTERED: JUL 01 2013